MERRY CHRISTMAS

The Lees In Northern Mexico

Seasons Greetings From The Lees

Christmas 2008

One of my favorite things about Christmas is singing Christmas carols. There are many that I love, and sometimes find myself singing during the year when it isn't even Christmas. Ours is a family that loves to sing. Michael and I started it when we first met. I remember our first Thanksgiving together as we drove from my house in Hampton to his aunt Betty's house in Virginia Beach. We sang Christmas carols the whole way there and back.

As our children were born, we sang to each of them, ensuring a love for music in them as well. So many of the Christmas carols and hymns that we sing proclaim the wonderful message of God's love for His people! As we sing this Christmas season, may we allow these words to speak to the very depths of our hearts, and encourage us to proclaim the love of Christ to all this Christmas and throughout the whole year.

Merry Christmas, Tricia

Infant Holy, Infant Lowly
Infant holy, infant lowly,
For his bed a cattle stall
Oxen lowing, little knowing
Christ the babe is Lord of all

Swift are winging, angels singing,
Noels ringing, tidings bringing
Christ the babe is Lord of all.
Christ the babe is Lord of all.

Flocks were singing, shepherds keeping
Vigil till the morning new
Saw the glory, heard the story,
Tidings of a gospel true.

Thus rejoicing, free from sorrow,
praises voicing, greet the morrow
Christ the babe was born for you.
Christ the babe was born for you.

"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men on whom his favor rests."
